VON BIEKER

Von Bieker (pronounced Von Bee-ker) plays bow tie rock and folk to haunt your heart.

He performs regularly as a solo act and with his three-piece band Von Bieker and His Small-Tones. His songs juxtapose hope with despair. Love with fear. Faith with doubt. Gentle folk crooning with a raw and honest howl.

In Von Bieker's soundscape the earnest retro charm of a bow tie meets the world-worn grit of rock and roll and the vivid storytelling of folk music. Retro guitar twang channels resonant writing through a voice often pushed until it cracks into free-fall falsetto.

Based in Edmonton, Alberta, Von Bieker draws on influences ranging from Canada's Bahamas, Bruce Cockburn and Leonard Cohen to Glen Hansard, Hiss Golden Messenger, Sufjan Stevens and Radiohead.

Chilfiltr described Von Bieker's single, Angel, as "a pulse-driven indie rock number that will have you searching for your own holy light."

Von Bieker's debut album, Long For This World, releases June 25, 2021.
